Notes:

In the 2008 Statement of Vote, results are not summarized by county.

On pages 105 through 109—Election Day turnout statistics for the towns of Durham, Glastonbury, Middletown, Torrington and Waterbury—data is presented on two lines for each town, because each of these towns is divided across two congressional districts. The two line items per town can be summed to get the town total.

The town of Shelton is also divided across two congressional districts; the combined congressional district data is properly presented on one line for Shelton.
